

Dear Shigeru,

Here is the revised outline after your comments. My hope is to be as clear as possible, on fewer topics, than simply to mention all of the possible topics and issues.

Contemporary American evangelical issues on inerrancy: Debates in History and Practice

Introduction: Existential and Cognitive difficulty of the topic.

I. Brief Historical Analysis as Background

A. Doctrine of Scripture From the Reformers through the Westminster Confession

B. Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century Debates: from Descartes to Nietzsche

C. Early 20th Century Debates:

1. B. B. Warfield against J. Paterson Smyth
2. The New Hermeneutic and the Linguistic Turn

II. Contemporary Debates on Inerrancy

A. Introduction

B. Ancient Near Eastern Texts

C. Old Testament Quotations in the New

D. Proposed Solutions that must be Rejected:

1. Incarnational Analogy [Enns and others]
2. Post conservative Theology [Franke and others]
3. Old Testament in the New: Abraham and Covenantal Nomism [Martyn/others]

III. Proposed Biblically Faithful Solutions to the Problem

A. Objective Authority of the Text

B. Doctrine of God

Conclusion

I am not certain about the manuscript wanted by JETS but will send something soon.

In Christ's love,
